

Let's Watch Fagiano!

June 3rd, 2017

Many students enjoying their first professional soccer game

6月3日午後、留学生と日本人学生のグループがファジアーノ岡山の試合を観戦しました。

毎週サッカーをしていた彼らにとっては、サッカー観戦が好きな人とも交わることのできる良い機会となりました。プロスポーツはただ楽しむだけではなく、文化的体験としても良いものです。多くの留学生は日本のファンが選手各個人に詳しく、それぞれに応援歌を作り、歌っていることに興味を抱いていました。彼らにとっては、今まで想像もしなかった新しいスポーツの楽しみ方が、また一つ生まれることになりました。

On the evening of June 3rd, a group of international students and Japanese students went to cheer on Okayama's very own professional soccer team.

Every week, a group of students play soccer at the Sports Park, so it seemed like a great opportunity to join both students who enjoy playing and those who enjoy watching together. Professional sports are not only interesting to see, but in Japan they are truly a cultural experience. Many mentioned how interesting it was to see how Japanese sports fans knew every single player and had chants and cheers for each one. They were able to see a new way of enjoying sports that many had never thought of before.
